Sir:

Upon reviewing the above-identified patent, Patentee noted typographical errors which should be corrected. More specifically, in the Specification:

The structures depicted at column 104, for the compound in Example 2-37 and for the same compound at column 105 in subparagraph (ii) incorrectly show a butylene linking group. This portion of the structure should be a propylene linking group.

The errors were not in the application as filed by applicant; accordingly no fee is required.
